

The DO NOT CALL LIST is one of the few things that government has done right in the last 18 months. Listening to the silence of the phone NOT ringing with annoying calls, has been very pleasant. Why should we be harrassed by unwanted and not solicited calls. Are you suggesting we allow anyone who chooses to to walk into our homes as long as it is between certain hours? Certainly not. Leave the List in place.